

Christy and Valerie Merrigan would like to welcome you to their lovely family run bed and breakfast and self catering cottages in the delightful area of Glendalough in the garden county of Ireland, County Wicklow on the east coast of Ireland. We have been in the tourism business for the last 25 years.

We were born and reared in the local area, so any questions you may have, we should be able to answer them for you. When you contact us we will be the people answering your emails. When you are staying with us if you have any problems we will be there to sort them out with you.

We hope you enjoy our web site and that you choose to stay in our bed and breakfast or our self catering cottages the choice is yours.

We have lots of attractions such as forest walks, magnificent golf courses, horse riding, fishing, mountain biking, cycling, hill walking and sightseeing.

Glendale Bed and Breakfast provides you with luxury accommodation. We have four nicely decorated bedrooms all ensuite and are all on the ground level. The Garden is for visitor use and there are plenty of private car parking spaces.

Glendale holiday cottages are 5 Individual four stars approved self catering holiday cottages in a stunning location in Glendalough national park. Each cottage has an open fire. We are only a 5 min walk to Laragh village where you will find the shops, Lyhams pub, the conservatory restaurant, the

Wicklow heather restaurant, Ann's coffee shop and numerous tea rooms.
The Glendalough is only a 5 min drive away.
